

It Would Be True Love, If I Could Open My Heart

BY MABRI BLISS

Your eyebrows are thick, i like that your eyelashes always look like you've slept on your face and i think that's cute

the wrinkles around your eyes show me you've had a lot to laugh about I want that your lips are dry like you never shut your mouth but i love the sound of your voice when your big hands caress my thigh, my heart speeds up

i crave that your hearts so huge, i think it'll explode and i admire that your mind's so deep

i could dive into it for miles you tell me you love me, i soak in every syllable

i want to tell you my thoughts are always about you i just can't catch my breath it'd be true love, if i could open my heart i wish i could love the way you love me but this is my secret expression to you

I release my past
and my pain.
I refuse to be a
prisoner of an
unobserved mind.
I reject false
ideals and protect myself
from absorbing
others lies about
who I am. I am
worthy. I am
joyful. I am love.
